UM RUNNERS PLACE AT VANDAL INVITATIONAL
kellar/jg

MISSOULA---

Runners from UM placed in all three events they were entered in at last Sunday's Vandal Indoor Track Meet at the Kibbie Dome in Moscow, Idaho.

Tim Fox of Hardin was fourth in the finals of the 55-meter high hurdles. Fox had a 7.7 in the finals and a 7.6 in the prelims.

Both Grizzly relay teams had minor misfortunes, but managed to do well enough to place. The mile-relay team took third in 3:20.9, despite veteran John Roy's foot injury during the race. The splits for UM: Guy Rogers, :50.2; Kevin Poulson, :50.4; John Roys, :51.9 and Mike Andrews, :48.4.

A UM runner lost count of the number of laps for a half-mile on the 300-meter track and ran a slow final lap to hinder the performance of the two-mile relay team. UM came in third in 7:52.8 with Washington winning it in 7:32.5. Splits for UM: Carey Wallace, 2:00.1; Bruce Browning, 1:56.6; Scott Browning, 1:59.3 and Brad Shelden, 1:56.8.

Assistant men's track coach Will Cheesman said the team "did an adequate job for this time of year."

This Saturday the men's team travels to Pocatello, Idaho for a meet which will include Utah, Brigham Young, Idaho State and assorted individuals.

The women will open Feb. 11 at Idaho State.
